Steve,

Your approach is acceptable. As I mentioned in my phone conversation with Greg B., (b)(5) - Deliberative Process Privilege runs.

Thank You,
Brian

Subject: Additional Sites for the WA 1-04 Risk Analysis

Brian/Reid,

After yesterday's telecon I remembered that SC&A has been communicating with Virginia Uranium to see whether we can support their efforts in any way. This could raise a conflict of interest (COI) or a perceived COI, which we may wish to avoid. I believe that Greg Beronja has talked with you about this.

Let me know what you think

BTW, I just got off the phone with Mike Newman of Neutron Energy. I explained what we needed, and he seemed very willing to help. Now that he knows what it is exactly that we need, he has to get final clearance from his lawyers, etc, but he's optimistic that they'll let him provide us the data for the Juan Tafoya site. We should know one way or the other next week. If they do provide us with data, he'd like to get copies of any (b)(5) - Deliberative Process Privilege that we produce that use the data. I said that I'd have to clear that with EPA.

Thanks,
Steve
